City History

The City of Delano was incorporated on April 13, 1915, as a general law city, after being recognized as a railroad terminus from the year 1873 to the date of incorporation. Located in the Southern San Joaquin Valley, Delano has a multi-cultural population and workforce, and is known as the "International Community". It has the distinction as the "Table Grape Capital of the World". The current population, 52,005, represents an increase of 33% over the past ten years and is the second largest city in Kern County.

The City provides a full range of municipal services from a variety of funding sources. Services include: Police Services, Park and Community Services (Recreation); Public Works Functions including water, solid waste, sewer/wastewater treatment, street maintenance and street sweeping, and central garage; Community and Economic Activities; Administration services including personnel, finance, and general administration; Transit System; and Municipal Airport. Fire services are provided by a private contract.
